Who we are/What we do

The mission of Noble Era is to create a community of individuals who seek to pursue a better living by expressing their talents, passions, and dreams.

We want to encourage our members or “Nobles” to network their creative arts with each other in order to motivate and inspire each other to do what we love to do on a daily basis.

We look to challenge people to find out and live out their creative selves as a means to awaken their inner:

- Writer
- Poet
- Teacher
- Speaker
- Musician
- Actor
- Dancer
- Artist
- Activist
- Etc.

We hope to cultivate creative minds to become “Nobles” in order to seize networking opportunities that will benefit them for a better future. If we had a encyclopedia definition for who we are, it would state, “A Noble is of love and inspiration driven for better as one people”.

Our goals

The goals of Noble Era include:

- Changing the world one thought at a time! To guide minds to see “possibilities” instead of “reality”. To change the perspective that success means “fit in and conform” to society into “stand out and fight” for what you love to do.
- Gaining more like-minded, goal-oriented members and contributors.
- Seizing volunteering opportunities in our communities and collaborating with organizations who share similar project ideas.
- Locating private and public facilities to conduct presentations and meetings as well as potential venues to host and showcase events.
- Becoming a nationally known organization whose deeds represent every one of its members.

What we need

Noble Era feels we have the networking skills to operate with organizations across the nation, communities and media outlets to provide a platform people can connect and listen to.

We have the organizational skills to schedule the events, provide support to host events, offer our experiences and stories from numerous ethnical backgrounds in our outreach that will improve people's lives.

We need to incorporate national organizations and corporate sponsors into our outreach. We feel that with our efforts, deeds, and our community, this will provide an outlet for national exposure, which will bring awareness that:

If you have a talent, then show it. If you have a dream, then chase it. And if you have a passion, then express it!

We need individuals/organizations to aid us in our endeavors. The best support for Noble Era would be in:

- Advertising/Promoting what we are about to the public.
- References to universities/schools to reach youth.
- Financial support for projects.
- Finding resources to support “Nobles” on their creative paths.

Any amount of support will be much appreciated!
