

The True Extent of Mental Slavery: From Cradle to Slave

Once children are old enough, they are sent to school to be taught obedience and conformity. In school, they are taught to falsely identify their self-worth by their grades (Or performance). From there, the adults in their environment all condition them to believe that their purpose in life is to 'work and make money', and getting a good job that pays good money will be based on their 'performance'. Since children will have this belief, in a way, forced on them, their natural ability of creativity and imagination will most likely die. Creativity and imagination will be replaced with obedience and conformity.

Since the adults of the masses had their hopes and dreams die by understanding 'reality', they will give their children the 'bad news' as well to spare them from disappointments and the pain of not accomplishing all they sought out to accomplish. The parents tell their children that they need to 'grow up' and focus on 'working and making money' in order to survive in life.

Telling children to 'grow up' is what kills their creativity and imagination. Once they do decide to 'grow up', their only hopes and dreams will be to 'work and make money'. This is one of many destructive mindsets that the masses of people have.

Do you know why Americans feel so miserable and worthless once they lose their jobs? Because they were conditioned to believe, since they were children, that living to 'work and make money' is the only way to live and if they don't live that way, then their lives will cease to have meaning, purpose or function. There is nothing wrong with being productive, but there's a problem when the masses believe that being productive solely means to 'work and make money'.

When the masses of people accept that they are 'supposed to embrace' this way of living, they will refuse to live any other way because of the fear of being labeled as a 'failure' and being an 'outcast' of society. Remember, the masses believe they have to follow the 'norm' to be significant in life.

Fear is a method that The Man/Illuminati uses. Fear keeps people in a lower state of consciousness. They are less aware and less able to think clearly, which makes them easier to be brainwashed. It's easy to feed lies to those who are afraid.

Think about it: Why do you think manipulators put so much emphasis on trivial, 'mainstream' news such as professional sports, celebrity news, politics, economic news, etc.? To cause distractions because they don't want the masses to think too much (Or they will discover the power they hold within) or realize the 'reality' that they're in that The Man/Illuminati created.

This system that The Man/Illuminati created isn't made to condition the masses of people to seek truth, but to accept their reality. What makes this system so ingenious is that The Man/Illuminati knows that their reality won't fulfill the emptiness that the masses will feel (Because humanity was made to function only on truth!), so in order to escape the pain of emptiness, the masses will crave more distractions which will result them to turn to the 'mainstream' of society and to materialistic consumption.

If the masses of people feel as though they are trapped, powerless, and/or helpless, it is because they have been deceived by the reality The Man/Illuminati created. In order to free their minds, they must first and foremost acknowledge the deception that has been created.

It's only through deception could those who have authority control the minds of the masses. The masses seem to mistake authority with truth, but they don't seem to understand that.....

Authority is not truth. Truth is the authority!

The irony of that statement is that people cannot be controlled by truth. The nature of truth consist of enlightenment, liberation, and empowerment. Truth is like a light; it brightens those who give it and those who receive it. The Man/Illuminati knows that it would be almost impossible to control those who choose to live (And die) for truth. If the masses of people ever made such a choice, they would surely awaken the power that they hold within.
